Roosevelt to Ask Congress to Extend Security Measure

President Plans Special Message Early in January to Both Houses—National Defense Message

Rail Suggestions

General Message Likely to Put More Light on Railroad—Holds Conference

Washington, Dec. 19 (AP)—President Roosevelt intends to ask Congress early in January to extend and strengthen the Social Security Act.

White House officials said today the Chief Executive intended to send a special message "relative to the extension of coverage and the strengthening of provisions of the Social Security Act."

Presumably the message will transmit to Congress a copy of the report carrying recommendations of the social advisory council.

The council made public Saturday recommendations that the insurance coverage be widely extended.

White House officials said possibly national defense also would be the subject for a special message.

Mr. Roosevelt called in a group of government officials today to discuss defense problems. Those on the list were Chairman Edward J. Noble and Robert Hinkley of the Civil Aeronautics Authority; Louis Johnson, assistant secretary of war; and Aubrey Williams, deputy WPA administrator.

Community Tree Glows on Court House Lawn

Shown here is the 30-foot community Christmas tree with its huge star and its multi-colored lights aglow at "1818" Wall street. The tree is only one of the many Yuletide decorations throughout various portions of the city. Tonight, and continuing through Christmas Eve, stores in the city will remain open until 9:30 o'clock to accommodate shoppers.

E. C. Shults Buys Everett's Grocery At Wall and Main

Saugerties Man to Continue Store and Bakery at Present Site and Will Install New-Type Equipment

One of Kingston's old established grocery and bakery businesses changed hands Saturday when Everett's store, Main and Wall street, was sold by C. Ray Everett, who since 1926 has conducted the business.

The business was bought by Edwin C. Shults, son of John C. Shults of Saugerties, who will continue the business for the present under the same name. Mr. Shults will make alterations and improvements to the property, installing modern fixtures and equipment, both in the grocery department and in the bakery.

The work of redecorating was commenced over the week-end when the grocery department was re-painted and re-opened for business this morning. This improvement will be continued throughout the property and the grocery department will be re-stocked with a complete line of merchandise.

Continuing under the name of "Everett's," Mr. Shults will operate the business with the same force of employees and will have personal charge of both the bakery and grocery departments.

"Everett's" since 1926 has been conducted by C. Ray Everett, former city treasurer, who took over the business at that time from his father, Charles B. Everett, who had conducted the business from 1908 when he bought out the firm of A. A. and C. R. Styles, who had operated the store under their name for many years.

Edwin C. Shults, brother of J. Richard Shults, proprietor of the East Strand and 37 North Front street, was graduated from Colgate University last June.

In connection with the purchase of the bakery and grocery business Mr. Shults has taken a long lease on the store property. Mr. Everett was out of the city today and his plans for the future could not be learned.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Dec. 19 (AP)—The position of the treasury December 16: Receipts, $126,861,780.44; expenditures, $115,871,443.11; net balance, $3,113,193,973.94, including $2,186,405,552.54 working balance; customs receipts for the month, $14,922,278.57; receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $2,629,915,303.34; expenditures, $4,169,245,912.97, including $1,269,296,388.96 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures, $1,539,330,609.63; gross debt, $39,403,081,210.60, a decrease of $249,268.99 below the previous day; gold assets, $14,430,064,024.22.

Thorough Inquiry

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—Rear Admiral Clark H. Woodward, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, ordered a thorough inquiry today into a fire that destroyed a two-story brick paint and oil storehouse in the yard. The flames broke out at 8:15 last night and spread a black pall over the district. Hundreds of sailors joined city firemen in a two-hour battle to subdue the blaze. All entrances and exits to the yard were barred. Marines with fixed bayonets kept spectators at a distance and refused to permit taking of photographs.

Fuller's to Reopen Jan. 1, Many Orders

Fuller's shirt factory on Pine Grove avenue, which is closed down while the annual inventory is being taken, plans to reopen the first of the year with plenty of work on hand to keep the plant busy.

The company plans to discontinue the cutting department which has been located in the former Plant plant on Broadway, adjoining the Y. M. C. A., and the cutting department will be removed to the plant on Pine Grove avenue, so that all of the work will be under one roof.

President's Wife Defends Activity

Mrs. Roosevelt Says She and Children Have Right to Their Private Lives

Washington, Dec. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt vigorously asserted today the right of a President's wife and children to live their own private lives.

Discussing at her press conference her acceptance of a place on an insurance company's board of directors, Mrs. Roosevelt put the question up to the people of the United States.

Do they want the children of a President to be the type who do not want to earn their own living? she asked.

And does the nation want a President's wife to give up all of the interests she has built up?

Mrs. Roosevelt said she often had wondered whether the people of the country realized that a President's family must go on with their normal lives while he is in the White House.

Her argument ran as follows: "The people elect a man as President. They don't give any of the others in the family a job. Sometimes, especially in the case of young people, a President is in the White House long enough for a complete restriction on their individual lives. And they only have a limited period to build these lives."

Mrs. Roosevelt pointed out that such a policy in her own case would have meant giving up a great many interests and changing her whole relation to her family.

If the people of the nation insisted on restrictions on the activities of a President's wife, she added, the time might come when a woman would say that she would not go to the White House.

Mrs. Roosevelt stressed the fact that no member of the White House family, nor any person in the government, should ever use his or her position to ask for special favors.

She told her press conference that she would accept a directorship in Roosevelt and Sargent, Boston Insurance firm founded by her son, James, merely to act as James' representative. Before agreeing to do so, she said, she asked if any financial obligation would be incurred, or if any real knowledge of the business was necessary. Informed that it was not, she agreed to serve in James' place and to vote his stock as he suggests.

Mrs. Roosevelt said she doubted if it would be necessary for her to attend meetings more than twice a year. She will not, she said, sell any insurance.

Pine Lists Nearly 800 Parcels for County Tax Sale

Annual Auction Will Be Held at Court House Wednesday Beginning at 10 A. M.; Property in All Towns

County Treasurer V. T. Pine calls attention to the annual tax sale of properties in Ulster county on which taxes for the present year remain unpaid. The sale will be held on Wednesday of this week, December 21, beginning at 10 a. m., and continuing until all parcels are sold.

The sale will be held at the court house and if there is no court in session will take place in the court room on the second floor.

According to the latest records in the county treasurer's office between six and eight hundred parcels will be offered at the sale. Every town in the county has properties on the sale list.

At the sale each property is offered separately and is always sold for the amount advertised in the papers as being due—never either more or less. Where there is more than one bidder on a property, instead of running up the amount of money bid, bidders agree to pay the amount due to less than the full amount of land mentioned in the parcel. Thus where there are several bidders on a parcel containing, say, 100 acres, the successful bidder may agree to pay the taxes due in order to obtain but a small part of the parcel. In such cases he has a right to choose the part containing the buildings, if any.

The taxpayer has a right to redeem his property within one year of the tax sale, in which event the tax sale purchaser receives ten per cent interest on the amount he paid to buy the property.

Claims Jump Record

Buenos Aires, Dec. 19 (AP)—Juan Braceras, Argentine sportsman, today claimed a world record of broad jump by 4 horse.

Harold Ikes Challenges Ford And Lindbergh 'Birthrights'

Cleveland (Dec. 19 (AP)—Henry Ford, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, and other Americans who accept medals from dictators had a challenge from Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ikes to explain why their American birthright is not forfeit.

Ikes, speaking last night at the annual Hanukkah banquet of the Cleveland Zionist Society, asked, "How can any American, who calls himself a Christian, or who pretends to believe in the enlightened principles that constitute the warp and woof of our American life, accept a decoration at the hand of a brutal dictator who, with that same hand, is robbing and torturing thousands of fellow human beings?"

"Perhaps Henry Ford and Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh will be willing to answer the question. Nor are these the only two free citizens of a free country who obviously have accepted tokens of contemptuous distinction at a time when the bestower of them counts that day lost when he can commit no new crime against humanity."

Ikes took a passing slap at "the cunning and spiteful intolerance of the chairman of a congressional investigating committee, who, by some mischance, finds himself clothed with a little brief authority, in the wanton exercise of which he violates every rule of decency and fair play."

Ikes said he wished America might be thrown open to political refugees, but "we must faithfully carry out the laws of congress limiting immigration. It is not to be wondered at that the hapless and harassed Jews should turn in hope to their ancient land of Palestine, and perhaps by our moral and material support we can help to make it possible for them to return to the land of their fathers."

Lawyer Swears He Drew Contract for Purchase of Guns

Wingersky Says 'Coster' Made Request for Papers, Rifles Bought by Drug Firm and Anglo Standard Oil

Probe Goes On

McMahon Says 'Coster' Probably Biggest Bootlegger in Country

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—A Boston lawyer swore today he drafted, at the behest of F. Donald Coster-Phillip Musica, a contract for the purchase of Lee-Enfield rifles by McKesson and Robbins, Inc., and Standard Oil of England.

The lawyer, Frederic Wingersky, made his statement to Assistant State Attorney General Ambrose V. McCall, conducting an inquiry into the affairs of the $87,000,000 corporation. Coster-Musica committed suicide Friday when he was exposed as a notorious swindler of a quarter century ago.

At the same time Brian McMahon, assistant U. S. attorney general, arriving from Washington described Coster-Musica as probably "the biggest illicit liquor dealer in the country."

McMahon came here to coordinate the investigations of federal agencies interested in ferreting out the mystery behind Coster-Musica and the $18,000,000 shortage in the firm's crude drugs department which he operated.

Emphasis has been placed on the gun-running angle by investigators who have advanced the tentative theory the missing assets might be in the form of unpaid bills for shipments of guns and ammunition.

Coster-Musica, according to McMahon, had connections "with practically every big name in the nation's underworld."

"There also seems to be some indication of illegal dealing in arms," McMahon said, "and the violations are probably not confined to the jurisdiction of New York. There is apparent violation also of several other laws."

Inquiry Opens

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—The federal government opened a co-ordinated inquiry today into a vast international arms smuggling plot which officials predicted would net co-conspirators "equally as important" as Philip Musica, arch-swindler of his time.

As authorities began an extended probe into the $18,000,000 shortage in the crude drugs department of the McKesson & Robbins Corporation—"milked," they said, to provide funds for the smuggling enterprise—Musica himself lay in a Brooklyn morgue. He will be buried in a guarded ceremony during the day in the Cypress Hills Cemetery in Queens, near his father, Antonio Musica, an immigrant Italian barber.

The distinguished-looking, 61-year-old ex-convict, who as "F. Donald Coster" became head of the world's third largest drug firm and ended a lifelong career in deception by blowing his brains out, remained in death the key enigma in a case of baffling complexity.

Although a number of other angles remained unexplored, acting U. S. Attorney Gregory P. Noonan said representatives of the six federal agencies in the co-ordinated inquiry would lay "special emphasis on the arms-smuggling phase of the investigation."

Noonan said these and other government agencies also would probe thoroughly reports that Musica, convicted in the $1,000,000 "human hair" fraud in 1913, used part of the $18,000,000 missing McKesson & Robbins funds to pay off blackmailers who threatened to disclose his identity.

Bitter Weather Hits Europe

Coldest Day in 10 Years and Official Forecasters Say Much Worse Is Ahead—Czechs Feel Loss of Sudeten Coal Regions

London, Dec. 19 (AP)—Icy north-east winds from Siberia laden with snow and sleet struck Europe today from northern Scotland to southern Greece, sending temperatures tumbling to record lows.

Official forecasts said there was even worse coming.

London temperatures dropped from 42 degrees Fahrenheit to 26 in 24 hours, bringing the coldest day in 10 years. Snow fell over Scotland and England as far as South London.

At Hastings, one of Britain's warmest south coast resorts, water froze on the beach.

Some of the coldest temperatures, 25 to 30 degrees below zero, were reported from the Carpathian mountain districts of eastern Czechoslovakia. In Prague it was 17 below.

The bitter cold was especially unwelcome in Czechoslovakia because the loss of the rich Sudetenland coalfields to Germany has resulted in a coal shortage at present.

Lifeboats aided distressed ships off the British coast. Five men were saved from a sinking French schooner near Landsend, Britain's westernmost point.

Ten men on a Hull trawler were rescued after the ship sprang a leak. A radio message from The Netherlands steamer Alderamin reported one seaman was lost overboard during the storm.

Landon's Speech Not To Argentine's Taste

Delegate's Emphasis Upon Monroe Doctrine Revives Old Differences Concerning Continental Solidarity and Defense—Argentine Chairman Foresees Accord

Lima, Dec. 19 (AP)—Delegates to the Pan-American conference expressed the belief today that Alf M. Landon's speech emphasizing the Monroe Doctrine was highly distasteful to Argentina, which already had differences with the United States on the question of continental solidarity and defense.

A few hours after the speech, however, Isidoro Ruiz Moreno, chairman of the Argentine delegation, declared "we already have smoothed out some differences and I am sure a complete accord will be reached."

"Argentina has been fighting the United States on the matter of continental solidarity ever since the conference opened."

She refuses to approve any pact against aggression or any strong declaration that applies only to "outside aggression," claiming that the United States is a potential threat to Latin American nations because they have no assurances President Roosevelt's "good neighbor" policy would continue under a different regime.

The Argentine delegates were quick to point out that Landon, the Republican presidential nominee in 1936, did not give such assurances, but that he did give assurances that the United States would continue the Monroe Doctrine which Argentina dislikes.

Landon spoke in a world-wide broadcast last night. The speech was delivered outside the conference hall, but it was generally agreed it would have a definite effect on the conference itself.

He declared that the people of the Americas were "horribly shocked" by the "incredible brutality" of the world on "both sides of us," asserting that the United States, regardless of the party in power in Washington, would not tolerate any foreign government gaining a foothold on this continent.

"Agents of totalitarian powers are busy spreading propaganda all over Central America and South America to the effect that these countries cannot count on the continuity of the policy of the United States," Landon said.

"Let me say that there is one policy which the people of the United States have pursued far more than a century regardless of election results. That policy is that the United States will not tolerate any foreign government gaining a foothold on this continent."

He expressed confidence Communism and Nazism would not succeed in this hemisphere because "the spirit of liberty is too strong."

Challenging his own country, he declared: "Unless we in the United States have become so soft that we are no longer concerned as to whether other countries get a foothold in this hemisphere, the time has come when, in common with other American republics, we must take into account these activities in a serious and practical way. This means going beyond mere words and gestures."

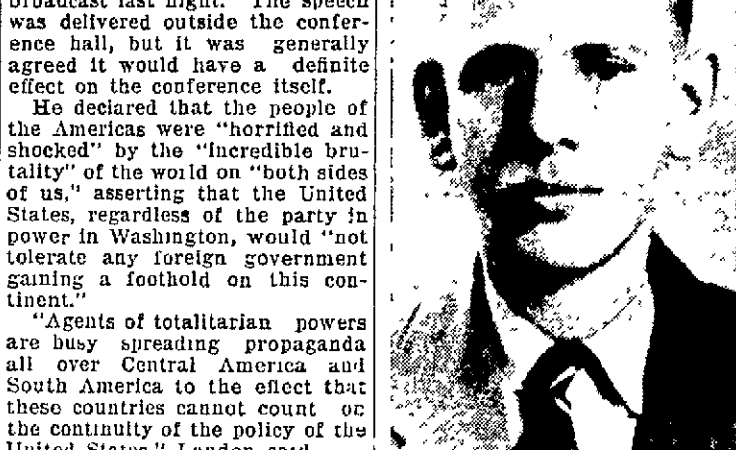

Ruiz Moreno was reported to have stated at a meeting of delegates Saturday night that Argentina does not regard the threat of outside nations to be as great as the United States regards it. For this reason, he expressed opposition to mentioning "aggression from without."

Cordell Hull, United States secretary of state, was said to have replied that Argentina would think differently if she saw armies and navies of totalitarian states off her shores.

Meanwhile, Atriano De Mello Franco, head of the Brazilian delegation, was drafting a new declaration on continental defense welding together the ideas of the smaller nations.

Shults Completes Aviation Course

Bearsville Youth Wins Wings and Will Join One of Nation's Major Air Lines

Donald Shults, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Shults, of Bearsville, returned yesterday from Parks Air College, East St. Louis, Ill., with his degree as Bachelor of Science in Aeronautics.

Mr. Shults was graduated from Kingston High School in 1936 and enrolled shortly thereafter at Parks.

During his training Mr. Shults, who majored in aviation mechanics and maintenance, flew 20 hours solo and received his National Aeronautics Association wings and his student's pilot license.

Mr. Shults will be at the home of his parents in Bearsville for about two weeks. At the end of that time he expects to join the personnel of one of the nation's major air lines.

Scholarships Are Open

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 19 (AP)—American newspapermen today were invited to apply for one-year Nieman scholarships which Harvard University is offering, experimentally, for the second year. The scholarships provide for elective courses of study for American newspapermen. Each pays the holder an amount corresponding to the salary received from his newspaper. The scholarships were made possible by a gift of Mrs. Agnes Wahl Nieman, widow of Lucius W. Nieman, founder of the Milwaukee Journal.

Seedless Watermelon

East Lansing, Mich., Dec. 19 (AP)—The Michigan State College exhibited today a seedless watermelon developed by Cheong-Yin Wong, a 27-year-old Chinese graduate student. Wong explained that elimination of the seeds was accomplished by the use of growth-promoting hormones in dilute acids. He begged the plant blossom to prevent accidental pollination, then removed the male portion of the flower. The female portion then was treated with chemical stimulants.

Tokyo Warns U. S. Loan to Chinese Is 'Very Dangerous'

Foreign Minister Arita Says Proposal 'Inopportune and Regrettable Act'—New Order to Close Door

To Remove Jews

Rumanian Foreign Office Tells of Plan to Return Jews to Palestine

(By The Associated Press)

A warning to the United States that its export-import bank's plan to lend $25,000,000 to China would be a "very dangerous political gesture" added today to strain between Washington and Tokyo while Italian colonial demands on France again worried Europe.

Japanese Foreign Minister Hiroshi Arita described the proposed loan to China as "an inopportune and regrettable act." He declared Japan might regard it as "a form of political pressure" and that Tokyo "undoubtedly will find in it new grounds for strengthening the proposed new order in East Asia."

The new order means closing the open door in China against which the United States has protested vehemently.

New anti-Jewish measures developed in two countries of Central Europe.

Rumanian Foreign Office disclosed that the removal of 150,000 Rumanian Jews to Palestine and certain British colonies was envisaged in diplomatic negotiations already in progress with Great Britain.

The Hungarian cabinet gave final touches to a bill, to be submitted to Parliament Friday, which would impose new social and economic restrictions on Hungary's Jews, possibly limiting their voting rights also.

The Jewish population of Rumania is about 1,000,000; of Hungary, about 450,000.

Gravity of the situation between France and Italy is summarized by these statements:

In Rome, by the Relazione Internazionale, organ of the institute for study of foreign policy—Italy will win her territorial claims against France within ten months.

In Paris, by Georges Bonnet, French minister—if either France or Britain were "the object of unprovoked aggression," neither would hesitate to come to the other's aid.

A French "no surrender" bloc organized forces to resist cession of any French or British territory to Italy amid suspicion that plans already were afoot to turn over all or part of British and French Somaliland to Premier Mussolini.

Observers Fear Duce

Some observers expressed fear that Duce's silence on the territorial issue in a speech yesterday meant only that he already had heard of offers from London and Paris.

With British Prime Minister Chamberlain scheduled to visit Rome next January 11, the developments put him "on a spot" as he faced the House of Commons in a foreign affairs debate.

Argentina's fear that the United States was a potential threat to Latin America still was a barrier to a pact for continental defense against "outside aggression" at the Pan-American conference in Lima, Peru.

Delegates expressed belief that Alf M. Landon's speech emphasizing the permanence of the Monroe Doctrine regardless of domestic politics would be unconvincing to Argentines who dislike some aspects of the Monroe Doctrine and are more concerned over the permanence of the "good neighbor policy."

Isidoro Ruiz Moreno, chairman of the Argentine delegation, however, declared after the speech that "we already have smoothed out some differences and I am sure a complete accord will be reached."

Japanese forces in China, apparently having attained their immediate goals, are beginning a widespread campaign to wipe out guerrilla bands in regions already conquered rather than extend their conquest.

War fronts in Spain were inactive.

Trade Pact Ready

Washington, Dec. 19 (AP)—A new reciprocal trade agreement between the United States and Turkey was ready today for final approval. Negotiations have been under way since January 12 and the agreement was initiated yesterday at Ankara, Turkey. Proceedings were delayed by American insistence on free currency exchange and by the death of President Kemal Ataturk. It was understood the agreement would provide unconditional most-favored-nation treatment but the state department withheld details pending signature.

Group Is Arrested

Geneva, Dec. 19 (AP)—An undetermined number of persons was arrested last night in a roundup which was officially described today as directed against espionage in Switzerland. Police said that the majority of the arrests occurred at Moille-Sulaz, a town on the French frontier, but declined to disclose any identities.

Human Eye Is Revealed To Be Electrical Organ

There is the same difference between the electricity in the eye and the electrical waves in the brain as there is between direct current and alternating current. The electricity in the brain is always pulsating, but the charge on the eye remains constant and manifests itself only when the eye moves.

The lens part of the eyeball has a positive potential, and the rear part, where the retina is situated, has a negative potential, according to a professor of psychology who has measured the potential in many persons and found that the lens part has a positive potential of about one millivolt, or one one-thousandth of a volt, with an equal and opposite potential on the back part.

The eye connects directly with the brain through a relatively large nerve that enters the base of the brain and has internal connections in the cerebral hemispheres to the visual centers that are situated on the surface of each lobe in its central portion. The electric currents that are picked up on the surface of the brain, however, do not travel along the optic nerves and manifest at the eyeball.

The nature of the physiological activity within the eyeball that creates this potential appears to remain in constant operation, varying only slightly in successive measurements. It maintains the charge on the eye against the moist, saline, short-circuiting tissues that surround the eyeball.

The lens, with highest potential, acts as a sort of searchlight beam that projects its electrical charge into the surrounding tissues as the eye is moved. There is a zero potential around the electrical equator of the eyeball, which extends around it in a vertical plane. At the other pole is the negative potential. The surrounding tissues are at the same electrical potential as the part of the eyeball with which they are in contact.

Build Home for Huge Telescope

Almost Inaccessible Peak
Is Site of House for 200-Inch Lens.

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.—Man's eternal quest to fathom the mystery of his being will be further enhanced next May when the 200-inch "eye" of the Mount Palomar observatory will enable him to probe the heavens for some 3,000,000,000,000,000 miles, Capt. Clyde McDowell, supervising engineer, said.

Because its 5,350-foot summit is enveloped by unswerving air, lonely Palomar mountain, 80 miles north-east of San Diego, has been selected as the site for the $5,000,000 telescope.

Since early 1936 American industry has been at work fabricating the scores of essential parts for the observatory. In dozens of factories throughout the country the various parts have been painstakingly completed.

Piece-meal, the parts are being received on the isolated spur of the mountain, where they will be assembled, jigsaw fashion, to give the world the greatest astronomical tool man's ingenuity could conceive.

Peak Almost Inaccessible. Transportation now takes up where industry left off, for with all the parts completed, they must be moved to the summit, where five years ago only the hardest of mountain climbers ventured.

Only access to the 720-acre observatory site is by road of which a new six-mile unit was constructed recently at a cost of $300,000. Every ounce of material used in constructing the 500-ton telescope and the buildings which will house it must be trucked over steep, winding grades from the port of San Diego or the closest railroad, 54 miles distant.

The 99 tons of rotating machinery which will cradle the 200-inch mirror have made the trek up the mountain, but yet to be carried up the slopes of Palomar is the 300-ton horseshoe bearing which will support the telescope structure.

Mirror to Be Ready Soon.

The 200-inch aluminum coated mirror, now undergoing the last stages of polishing at the California Institute of Technology's laboratory in Pasadena, soon will be ready for shipment up the mountain, McDowell said.

Three 10-ton trucks, harnessed to a 26-wheel trailer, are used to lug the precious cargoes up the grade. The average traveling time required to make the trip from San Diego to Palomar is about 36 hours for the 89 miles.

So perfectly balanced will be the 500-ton structure that it will be capable of being moved by an electric motor developing only 165-horsepower, McDowell said.

Installation of the rotating machinery which will synchronize the movements of the big glass with the heavens upon which it will be focused is expected to take about six months, the supervising engineer estimated.

The observatory and housing accommodations for the glass are nearing completion and the entire unit will probably be turned over to scientists from the California Institute of Technology before June 1, 1940.

Vanilla Is Most Popular Of Ice Cream Flavors

CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I'll take vanilla," still is the most popular demand when it comes to choosing ice cream flavors.

The Dairy Industries exposition's flavor salesman said that the next most popular ice cream flavor—after vanilla—varies in different sections of the country. The dairy industries displayed their products in Cleveland's public hall in connection with their annual convention.

Down south chocolate is second choice in flavors. Dark cherry and butter pecan tie for second place in Michigan.

The ice-cream eating public now likes big chunks of fruit in its ice cream, the exposition revealed.

When Land Bobs Around It's Hard to Prove Title

BRISBANE, QUEENSLAND.—The owner of a parcel of land on Stradbroke island which disappeared several months ago as a result of erosion now insists that his property has reappeared on Main Beach Point, and that he intends to reclaim it. His principal difficulty is the fact that his shifting land has shown up in a different parish from the one where it was originally located.

Downcasters Tell How To Cure Seasickness

EASTPORT, MAINE.—Downcasters contend an old-fashioned New England remedy is a "sure cure" for seasickness.

The sufferer, at first symptoms, must throw a line over the side and catch a dolphin. The heart of the dolphin, still quivering, must be cut out and consumed—and the cure is "guaranteed."

BEHIND THE NEWS

A workman puts finishing touches on the rear of the Associated Press switchboard, nerve center of the vast network of leased wires, in the new A. P. building on Rockefeller Plaza, New York city. More than 5,000 wires are connected here and lead to the 285,000 miles of leased wire all over the world.

Associated Press Operates From Own New York Building

New York, Dec. 19 (AP).—The automatic printers and other vast leased wire system of the Associated Press operated from a new nerve center today—the new 15-story Associated Press building in Rockefeller Center.

The move from the Madison avenue building where the AP's collection and distribution of news had centered since 1925 was accomplished during the early Sunday morning hours without a hitch and without an instant's delay in transmitting news to 1,350 newspapers over the association's 285,000 miles of leased wires.

The entire system operated from both the old and new headquarters for a time Sunday morning with teletypes clicking in both places in unison.

Reporters and editors and photographers were on duty at both places. The wirephoto network was set up and ready for any news break.

Men on duty at the old headquarters wrote and edited and the organized confusion of the moving men carrying out typewriters and desks and chairs, carting away reference books and voluminous files and taking away completing in the past must continue into the future so that "By The Associated Press" shall prevail as long as the rights of a free press continue to make possible an uncensored, unfettered collection and dissemination of truthful news.

The general offices are on the seventh floor of the new building. The sixth will be sublet. The fifth floor houses the AP's experimental laboratory where the constant task of improving transmission of pictures and news is carried on. On the fifth floor, too, are the foreign news agencies which exchange news with the AP—Domei (Japanese), Havas (French), Tass (Soviet), Reuters (British) and the Canadian Press as well as the New York office of the newspaper, La Nacion, of Buenos Aires.

On the fourth floor is the news room with the general and local news department, the financial, sports, feature and Sunday departments, the newsphoto and wirephoto facilities, an engraving plant and the library with its thousands of files stories and reference books.

Here, too, is the huge traffic switchboard which controls the leased wire system in one of the most complicated wire set-ups electrical engineers said they had ever handled.

Car Damaged

The door on the automobile of Donald McAuliffe of 47 Lafayette avenue was damaged Sunday evening when it was struck by a car driven by Vernon Van Demark of Accord. Mr. McAuliffe had stopped his car on upper Broadway and gotten out on the left side of the car as the Vandemark car came along and struck the open door.

Three Cigarettes on a Match. The most usual explanation of the origin of the superstition attached to lighting three cigarettes with one match is that this was originally a wartime precautionary measure. During the World war, or even according to one authority, during the Boer war 15 years earlier, the glow of a match was sufficient to give an enemy marksman a target. The first and second man to use the match might be safe, but the enemy would be sure of the range by the time the third cigarette was reached. Another theory finds the origin of the superstition in the funeral service of the Russian church, where three altar candles were lighted with one taper. It was considered sacrilegious to make any other lights in groups of three, hence such a procedure as using the same light for three cigarettes must bring bad luck.

Congress Hall in Philadelphia

Congress hall in Philadelphia, at the corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets, was begun in 1787 and completed in 1790. It was used by the United States congress from December 6, 1790, to May 14, 1800. The house of representatives met on the first floor and the senate in the south chamber on the second floor. In Congress hall President Washington was inaugurated for the second time and there he delivered the celebrated Farewell address. President Adams was inaugurated there. John Marshall, when a congressman from Virginia speaking on the death of Washington, first uttered the famous phrase "First in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen," taken from Henry Lee's formal resolution. The building was last restored in 1913.

'Usual Reduction'
Albany, N. Y., Dec. 19 (AP)—The state labor department has placed "the usual seasonal reduction" in New York's construction employment in November as 3.5 per cent. At the same time, Industrial Commissioner Frieda S. Miller said payrolls dropped 4.6 per cent and man-hours 8 per cent from October 15 to November 15.

JANUARY, 1938: Business Slows Up At Home; War Worries Mount Abroad

By VOLTA TORREY
(AP) Feature Service Writer

There was a dearth of prophecy when the iron tongue of midnight tolled 1938's arrival. Jitterbugs about "Bei Mir Bist du Schoen," but outside the night clubs, business stagnated. "Nice work if you can get it" was a popular phrase—Special Census-Taker John D. Biggers estimated 10,000,000 Americans were unemployed, and big business men went silently to Washington, in January, like small fry entering the woodshed with father.

Interior Secretary Ickes and Assistant Attorney General Jackson (who then was expected to run for governor of New York) had been booting business "bourbons." Men of means fought NLRB and fumed about "that man in Loyalist on guard at Teruel the White House." But before the month ended there was truce talk. And Economist Leonard P. Ayres foresaw an upswing by summer.

"Another year, another war?" Europe thought. Unusually bright

One way to help in ascertaining where we are is to look back on the road by which we have travelled.
—Lord Grey.

In the year now nearly over, the world careened along a rough, bewildering road. Some folks goose-stepped; some did the Lambeth Walk. And here's a swing-time, month-by-month glance back. This is the first part, January's. Tomorrow's chapter deals with February, and so on until the story ends.

Northern lights one January night made peasants think "Der Tag" had dawned. But Germany was jolted by the marriage of a carpenter's 25-year-old daughter to Field Marshal Werner von Blomberg, 59. Spanish loyalists took Teruel, their first great victory for months. And Nippon nibbled on in China, but promised to be Uncle Sam's pal in '38.

Taking the Long View
America prepared to build a bigger navy. "Our people believe," the President asserted, "that over the years democracies of the world will survive, and democracy will be restored or established in those nations which today know it not."

The house of representatives buried the Ludlow war referendum plan, 209 to 188. The senate became entangled in an anti-lynching bill filibuster. The supreme court was kept in headlines by Associate Justice Sutherland's retirement, the appointment of Solicitor General Stanley Reed to succeed him, and Justice Cardozo's illness.

Jersey City's Mayor Hague spurned a senate seat to continue his war on "reds." Glenn Frank agreed to head the G. O. P. program committee. New York WPA sectors presented "one-third of a nation."

"Heigh, Ho, Heigh, Ho..." "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" delighted "most every" body. Stay-at-homes tuned in on Toscanini or read "The Citadel," "The Arts," or "Northwest Passage." Idlers in corner drug stores discussed the 22-day fast of Dean Israel Harding Noy of Memphis, the Ely Culbertson divorce, Barbara Stanwyck's scrap with Frank Fay over an adopted son, and the capture of the kidnaper of Charles S. Ross of Chicago.

Seven died when Pan American Airways Pilot Edwin C. Murek crashed near Pago Pago, American Samoa, and 10 died in an airliner's tailspin near Bozeman, Mont. But Il Duce's son, Bruno, led three tri-motored bombers on a good-will flight from Italy to South America.

Birth of a Baby

A French cabinet crisis delayed the League of Nations council's 100th session. Anthony Eden still was figure-skating for Great Britain, Kurt Schuschnigg was deaf to Italy's efforts to lure Austria out of the league. Both democratic and fascist missionaries lusted through the Balkans—and Rumania's new post-premier, Octavian Goga (who died only four months later), made the Jews squirm. The U. S. S. R.'s new parliament met; the U. S. got curiously and curiously about a Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Robinson whom the Russians had in jail.

And January 31 in Holland, a 51-gun salute announced the birth of Princess Juliana's baby, Beatrix Wilhelmina Armgard. Declined some day to rule 69,000,000 people.

Cock Fight Raided

Bernardsville, N. J., Dec. 19 (AP)—Fifty-one men and three women spectators were arrested when state police and S. P. C. A. agents raided a cock fight in a barn here yesterday. Two spirited birds were battling as the raiders stationed guards at all three exits and seized all those in the rising tiers of seats build around the ring. Arraigned before Judge Arthur Palmer, the spectators were fined $2 each and the alleged owner of the barn was fined $17.50. Those arrested gave addresses in Pennsylvania, New York state, and many New Jersey counties.

Ottawa, Kans., city of 10,000 people, has had no fatal traffic accidents since July 26, 1938.

FALSE RUMORS

It has come to the attention of the local Ward Management that rumors are about town spreading the false belief that Ward's female help is poorly paid. While these rumors are utterly baseless and while such whisperings are usually started by unthinking and uninformed individuals, we realize nevertheless the importance of rumors, so we hasten to nip this one in the bud.

(Such is the price paid for endeavoring to give Kingston the highest paid personnel in the mercantile field! And in other fields, too.)

We regret to have to divulge some figures, but on the other hand we unveil them with a certain sense of pride.

The minimum weekly wage of any Kingston Ward regular salesgirl (regular means year round salesgirl) is $14.00. In the last six months no regular salesgirl earned less than this amount weekly. While this is the minimum wage, some of these same salesgirls have earned up to $19.00 weekly according to Ward's Monthly Bonus Plan.

While the rumor included only the female help, let's look at the male record on the subject. The minimum weekly wage of any regular Kingston Ward salesman is $18.00. (Regular means year round employment.) In the last six months regular weekly wages have ranged from the $18.00 minimum to $70.00 weekly. (Ward's local store uses a bonus or commission plan in all departments.)

From these figures the Reader will understand the second paragraph above. Our aim is to have the highest paid salespeople in the field in the community.

C. S. Rye Is Sought

Miami Beach, Fla., Dec. 19 (AP)—A search by land, air and water continued today for Charles S. Rye, 50, United States Steel Corp. official, and his six-year-old daughter, Dorothy, feared drowned while motor boating on Biscayne Bay. Rye, assistant manager of the market research department of the steel company, came here from Pittsburgh, Pa., to recuperate from a nervous breakdown. He rented the boat Thursday and has not been seen since. The craft, a small hole in its bow, was found stranded on an island on the Miami side of the bay yesterday, its fuel tank empty.

Clues Very Scarce

Pittsburgh, Dec. 19 (AP)—Clues

to the three young gunmen who forced 90 members of an exclusive club to peel their pants and then frisked their pockets were scarce today as statements from their perturbed victims. Witnesses said the trio were masked with handkerchiefs from nose to chin, thwarting identification. Police reported the cash loot, lugged out of the club in Pittsburgh's Squirrel Hill section, was "between $10,000 and $30,000." The same place was robbed six years ago.

18 Seamen Await Rescue

Juneau, Alaska, Dec. 19 (AP)—A week after they abandoned the ill-fated motorship Patterson, aground near Cape Fairweather, 18 seamen waited on the storm-swept beach today, hopeful their rescue would be effected shortly. They flashed word to the Coast Guard cutter Haida by means of their improvised flashlight that they believed they had enough food to last three days. Wind, which reached a velocity of between 30 and 45 miles an hour, raging over the gulf of Alaska, again yesterday blocked efforts of airplanes to reach the scene.

Banks Is Discharged

Neil Banks of 87 North Front street was discharged in police court today when his father, Jesse Banks, withdrew a charge of petit larceny he had lodged against his son. The father had had the son arrested on a charge of taking his truck from 33 Boulder avenue.

Vatican Denies Pope Critically Ill Again

Vatican City, Dec. 19 (AP).—Unusual exertion undergone by Pope Pius yesterday caused circulation today of rumors, which were quickly and authoritatively denied, that he had suffered a setback in the cardiac condition from which he suffers.

A Vatican news service and other reliable sources said the 81-year-old pontiff today felt better than on most days since the setback he suffered November 25, and which for a time caused anxiety concerning his recovery.

However, some private sources said the Holy Father had passed a restless night after his 45-minute discourse of yesterday and was somewhat weaker.

Pope Pius yesterday braved cold and rainy weather to preside over and address the opening of the third academic year of the Pontifical Academy of Science.

ALLEGED SLAYER; VICTIMS' DAUGHTER

Frank Salazar, 24, (right), Mexican laborer, was captured in Austin, Texas, and according to police admitted the axe-slashing of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kennedy of Miles, Tex. Police found the victims' daughter, Wilma, 16, (l.) in a shack with Kennedy. Police said she told them Salazar forced her from her home, then re-entered it. She heard screams. She said Salazar told her he had chloroformed the family.

Oswego County Bans Bingo, Other Games

Oswego, N. Y., Dec. 19 (AP).—District Attorney Harry M. Stacy clamped the lid tight on Oswego county bingo and other games of chance today including those conducted for charity. The order, the office of the district attorney said, "is definitely postpones" innumerable games planned this week to help feed the needy at Christmas time.

Stacy explained that he acted on a grand jury recommendation of nearly a year ago and several subsequent warnings. Stacy said that no arrests had been made yet.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By Robin Coon

HOLLYWOOD—Sidney Toler got a lucky break. He fell into a role that probably will last as long as he does. He became Charlie Chan II, this great big easy-going veteran who hates to be called a veteran. And was he lucky!

Yeah, like a Bobby Jones. Like a Notre Dame football team. Like a scant dozen of today's spear-carriers who will go in training, and work themselves silly, and ten years from now be the McCoy in stardom.

I've no proof, but I'm pretty sure that Sidney Toler planned it that way. He knew that Sol Wurtzel was looking for a Chan to take the late Warner Oland's place in that series which had earned a million a year. He knew that Wurtzel would be seeing him in another Wurtzel picture, "Up the River."

In that one he had the role of a confidence man. Movie confidence men are, by all the rules, breezy fellows. Sidney Toler persuaded the director that this con man should be quiet, subtle and restrained.

In "Up the River," Sidney Toler played Charlie Chan—omitting only his Chinese inflections. And it happened as he had planned it.

His stage career began when he took part in high school plays in Wichita, Kas., blossomed further at Kansas University. Professionally he began with Julia Marlowe, about 1901. Hollywood "discovered" him in the stage production of "It's a Wise Child" some 30 years later, proving how slow Hollywood can be on the uptake. He has been in pictures ever since. He has written plays, some of which have seen Broadway production, most of which have found success with amateur and school groups. From these he collects royalties—about $10 a performance—and enjoys a fair income.

At each meal—or three times a day—the United States consumes on the average of 14,684,000 pounds of beef, veal, pork and lamb.

Fourteen out of 15 poultry hatcheries in Louisiana are co-operating in a program for control of poultry diseases.

Molly Simon Is Stabbed
New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—Molly Simon, 23, was stabbed with an ice pick early today as she argued with a suitor over whether she should accept his marriage proposal. She was taken to Lincoln Hospital in a serious condition. Police arrested the suitor, booked as Gabriel Barach, 22, of Bayonne, N. J., on a charge of felonious assault.

Christmas Party
Next Sunday at Union Hose Co.

The children of Ponckhookie will enjoy their annual Christmas party at the rooms of Union Hose Co. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Each year a Christmas tree is erected in the parlors of the fire company and the children of the neighborhood are invited to attend the party.

the day happy for both old and young. Following the distribution of gifts to the long line of recipients the youngsters enjoy themselves with songs and games for the remainder of the afternoon under the supervision of Union Hose.

This party has been an annual custom for Union Hose Co. for many years and is eagerly looked forward to by the children of Ponckhookie.

I do not think I'll ever be much help around a Christmas tree, a smiling tree that gaily gleams, whose friendly rafters kiss the beams.

When I festoon the tree with tinsel and I usher in domestic wrangles. I yearn to show where things should go, but I'm, alas, malapropos.

I'm like the funny circus clown; what others hang up I knock down.

Poems are made by fools like me, but only wives can trim a tree.

What is the difference between grey and gray? Some say grey has to do with the eyes, for instance, and gray with clothing. After searching through dictionaries and encyclopedias and other reference books we have failed to find out just which is which. It's simply a case of you pay your money and you take your choice.

Wife—What's wrong, Henry? Hubby (booming from within the bathroom)—My razor. It doesn't cut at all.

Wife—Don't be silly. Your beard can't be tougher than linoleum.

Dorothy—No, I give facials in a beauty shop.

It's certainly bad to have no time for anything but work, to have to move all day and part of the night from one task to another. There's really but one thing we can think of that would be worth more, viz., to have nothing or very little to do, and have all this time hanging on your hands while you do nothing.

Teacher—Junior, why does Missouri stand at the head of mule raising in the United States.

Junior—Because the other end is too dangerous.

The early settlers located the home near the creek, but times are so hard now that nothing less than tiled-lined swimming pools with electric hair dryers in the dressing rooms will satisfy this generation.

Would Ask Investigation

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 19 (AP)—State Senator Walter J. Mahoney (R.) announced last night he would ask the Legislature to investigate the New York State Liquor Authority. Mahoney said he believed his proposal for an investigation of the state beverage control setup would be made a law.

The investigation would be designed to revise the "ABC law" and to end alleged abuses, improper practices and even criminal activities," Mahoney asserted.

Santa Will Visit
Legion Wednesday

Santa Claus has definitely promised to visit the children of the Legionnaires at the Christmas party that is being arranged for them by the Legion, Dec. 21, 1938, at 8 o'clock.

One way to avoid paying all money on one hand or worrying to have his harmonica ready. I'd rather, is to stay married.

"That the joyous faces of the hundreds of children I met last year at the Legion Christmas party is still fresh in my memory. I shall not disappoint them this year. Book me for Wednesday evening, December 21, at 7 o'clock."

"Oh yes, I shall have gifts and goodies for distribution. Tell Past Commander Norton Finch, 150 of the American Legion, according to Legionnaire Lester Barth, custodian of the Legion Memorial Building, 18 West O'Reilly street.

"Tell the children," said Santa.

Children Guests At Y.W.C.A. Parties

The party season opened at the Y. W. C. A. on Friday and parties will be held there throughout this week in celebration of Christmas.

The first party was held by the girls from the Wassaic colony. After an evening of roller skating and games, Santa visited the hall to distribute gifts which the members exchanged with one another. The evening closed with the Christmas spirit prevailing as the group, seated at tables around the tree, and having only candlelight for illumination, sang the old familiar Christmas carols.

At 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, 85 Blue Birds made the rafters rocho with their merry laughter as they gathered for their annual Christmas party. The program for the morning's party consisted of two plays and several dance numbers. The first skit was "A Christmas Book" in which most of the children present stepped from the pages of a large book. The special production was "The Sad Dwarf," a Christmas fairy play, produced under the direction of Miss Doris Kelsel. The role of the Sad Dwarf was taken by a cast of other members of the colony. Other members of the cast were Norma Manos, Gertrude Richter, Sally Norton, Lorraine Baker, Joan Jablonski, Jean Hotelling, Doris Palmatier, Helma Rosenberg, Dolores Miller, Jacqueline Clearwater, Beverly Reis, Joan Cahill and Shirley Plester.

Several dances and songs were also included in the program. Edith Ellison presented a character dance and Jean Herdman and Joan Christman presented a folk dance. The party concluded with a picnic luncheon at noon.

In the afternoon the members of the Tri-Hi Club entertained the 23 children of the Industrial Home, each one of which was adopted for the afternoon by a Tri-Hi girl. "The Sad Dwarf" and the dances which had been presented in the morning were repeated for the Industrial Home children and in addition Miss Edwina Schultz led the group in the singing of Christmas carols. Games and the serving of refreshments concluded the afternoon's fun.

Tonight the high school clubs of the Y. W. C. A. will join for a party at 7:30 o'clock. Wednesday after school the grade school Girl Reserves will join in having their Christmas party and the Business Girls' party will follow their regular supper meeting in the evening. A Christmas supper for the Cheerleaders on Thursday will bring to a close the busy week of parties at the Y. W. C. A.

The Coterie Met Saturday.

The Coterie met Saturday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. M. R. Coutant, on Emerson street. During the business meeting which preceded the program for the afternoon, it was voted to send a gift of money to the Industrial Home in memory of the late Mrs. Charles O'Connor. Papers were read on "Christianity," "The King of Denmark," by Miss Isabel Thompson and "Great Men of Poland," by Miss Mabel Hale. The next meeting will be held January 7 at the home of Mrs. C. E. Brown on Wurts street.

Alumnae Dance Plans

Final arrangements for the Alumnae dance of the St. Ursula Academy will be made at a meeting of the committee on arrangements which will be held tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock in the convent. The dance will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on December 27.

Daughter to DuBois

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. DuBois of 139 Wall street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Carolyn Jane, at the Kingston Hospital Saturday.

College Students Return

Students who are expected to return today for the holidays include Ward Brigham from Iowa State, Daniel Lammon, Irving Solomon and Maurice Burger from the University of Alabama and William Fessenden from Yale University. The trio of boys attending Gettysburg College returned home for the Christmas holidays Friday night. They are Howard Quick, Jr., Clarence E. Rowland, Jr., and Paul M. Young, Jr.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. William Trainer of Huntington, L. I., arrived Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Tremper of Albany avenue.

Miss Madeline M. Berg, a student at New York State College for Teachers in Albany, is home for the holidays.

John Martin of the Saugerties road, a student at Syracuse University, is on a motor trip through Virginia and Washington with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Budd of Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Riscley of Main street and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perret of Lake Katrine spent Sunday in Litchfield and Hartford, Conn. In Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Riscley were dinner guests of Miss Jennie Riscley and Mrs. Maggie Riscley, formerly of this city, who are also entertaining Mr. Riscley's mother, Mrs. Grace Riscley. Mr. and Mrs. Perret were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Stone of Hartford.

Miss Helene Gregory, who is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gregory of Manor avenue, has as her house guest for a few days, Miss Billie Maxey of Manila, P. I.

Miss Ruth Brinnier of Pearl street had as her week-end guest, Miss Helene Stroud of Portland, Ore., a classmate at Sargent School of Physical Education.

Miss Cecile Thompson, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Thompson of West Chestnut street and a student at Cornell University, has been cast for the forthcoming production, "Excursion" to be presented at the university.

HOME BUREAU

Flatbush Unit

On Tuesday evening the Flatbush Home Bureau unit and the T. X. T. Club joined in inviting the community to see moving pictures on pneumonia control shown by the state department of health. These two pictures titled "Pneumonia Nursing Half the Battle" and "The New Day," dealt with the importance of proper nursing and showed each method of curing for and handling a patient. The pictures were shown at the Flatbush Home Bureau and were stressed as essential in order that sputum may be typed and serums given if necessary. Miss Ann Cassidy gave a talk before and after the showing of the pictures. Mr. Schreiber of Albany operated the picture machine.

These pictures and lecture were a follow up of the pneumonia control lessons given in the unit and county last year.

A loan closet which was one of the major accomplishments during their 1937-38 activities, was also a result of the lessons. The loan closet has recently received two valuable additions to its stock room equipment. S. J. Larned of Flatbush has donated a wheelchair and C. R. Bangs of Kingston a hospital bed. The members of the unit wish to take this opportunity of extending their thanks to Mr. Larned and Mr. Bangs and all others who have contributed to the loan closet.

A hospital bed loaned by Miss Elia Thomas has already proven of great value to one of the members who needed one for her invalid husband during the summer. To date the available supplies include two hospital beds, a sick chair, a wheel chair, crutches, sand bags, combination tray and reading board, thermometers, water bags, ice bags and many small articles for the convenience and comfort of the patient. Lists of the articles are posted in various public buildings in the community and are available not only to Home Bureau members but the entire community.

Chairman of Alumnae Dance

MISS KATHLEEN CULLEN

Miss Kathleen Cullen, a sophomore at the College of St. Rose in Albany, is in charge of the arrangements for the dance to be held Tuesday, December 27, at the Knights of Columbus Hall for the alumnae of the Academy of St. Ursula.

Menus Of The Day

By Mrs. Alexander George

All About Christmas (Recipes To Use Then Or Later)

Christmas Star Salad (For Eight Or Nine)

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 2 tablespoons granulated gelatin | 2 tablespoons catsup |
| 1/2 cup cold water | 2 tablespoons horseradish |
| 2 cups tomato juice | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| 1/2 cup chopped celery | 1 teaspoon paprika |
| | 1 teaspoon granulated sugar |

Let gelatin soak for five minutes in water. Allow to dissolve in tomato juice heated to the boiling point. Cool. Add rest of the ingredients and pour into a star-shaped mold. (The mixture may also be poured into a shallow pan and, when stiff, cut out with a star paper pattern.) Unmold onto a platter and surround with cress or any other salad green. Serve with mayonnaise in which grated cheese has been placed.

Hard Sauce

- | | |
|-----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1/2 cup butter | 1/4 teaspoon almond extract |
| 2 tablespoons hot cream | 1/4 teaspoon lemon extract |
| 2 cups confectioner's sugar | 1/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind |
| 1 teaspoon vanilla | 1/4 teaspoon salt |

Cream butter until it is soft. Add rest of ingredients and beat until creamy. Roughly pile in a small dish and chill until serving time.

Old-Fashioned Cranberry Sauce (Jellied)

- | | |
|-------------------------|----------------------------|
| 4 cups cranberries | 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon |
| 1 1/2 cups water | 1/4 teaspoon orange slices |
| 2 cups granulated sugar | |

Boil berries and water together in a covered pan for five minutes. Add rest of ingredients and boil, uncovered, for seven minutes. Pour into a jar and cool.

If fondant gets hard and crumbly during kneading break off small pieces at a time and work them individually. The fondant may also be covered with a damp cloth and then kneaded with the hands.

Tobacco Auctions Old

The "Agricultural Situation" says: The tobacco auction system, first as to hogheads and then as to loose tobacco, dates back a century and a quarter, but its foundation was laid long before that, by the Virginia assembly, which in 1712 provided for the establishment of public warehouses at points within a mile of navigable water. Here the farmers delivered their hogheads of tobacco, which were opened and inspected by licensed and bonded inspectors, who issued negotiable receipts. For nearly a century the sale of tobacco was based on these tobacco notes. . . . The first known description of these hoghead auctions was published in the Richmond (Va.) Enquirer on January 30, 1810, beginning with the statement: "One or more hogheads are opened and a public signal is given, by the sound of a trumpet, that the gentlemen speculators may attend."

Tulane University, which is 104 years old, occupies a 93-acre campus in New Orleans.

WHIP UP A NEW "DIRNDL" APRON

MARIAN MARTIN

PATTERN 9883

Make way for the prettiest apron of the new season—'his "dirndl" style created by Marian Martin! Pattern 9883 is such a short-cut to chic . . . for there are only 3 main pieces to the entire design. Like the very-fashionable dirndl dresses, this young design has shirrings to "diminish" the waistline to new "doll size." The same simple shirrings adorn the top, with a dainty heading as the easiest of finishes. As for the straps, they're the "stay-in-place" type you insist on! How about stitching up several of these adorable aprons for gifts (as well as for yourself)—if you've "show-ers" or birthdays to provide for? Sparkling cottons and cretonnes are so inexpensive and so attractive!

Pattern 9883 may be ordered only in sizes small, medium and large. Small size requires 2 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coin for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly NAME, ADDRESS, and STYLE NUMBER.

Spring, 1939, MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN BOOK is just out and ready for mailing! See the latest styles, easy enough for beginners to make! Basic budget wardrobes! Bride fashions! Suits and their accessories! Coats, dresses and ensembles! "Fundamental" frocks. Cruise outfits. Styles for the larger figure. College, graduation and "date" clothes. Togs for the "small fry," as well as maternity wear, and an infant layette. Included are lingerie, and house-dresses. Order now! BOOK, FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN, FIFTEEN CENTS. Easy to Tap Like This With Home Lessons

Fit Steps to Popular Tunes

Tappin' dem "blues"! Doris dances right into the limelight! Who'd ever guess that a few months ago she was a timid wallflower? But Doris was smart enough to learn tap steps at home with simple diagrams and instructions.

And that's a stunt you can easily do! For, though that Rhythm Buck she's doing to a "Blues" tune looks complicated, it's really simple.

Even the slickest dance routines are just combinations of a few tap sounds you make by using the foot in four ways, like this:

BALL TAP. Strike ball of foot sharply against floor.

HEEL TAP. With weight on ball of foot, lower heel to floor.

TOE TAP. Extend leg backward, knee relaxed and strike floor with tip of toe.

FLAT TAP. Stamp on floor, using whole foot.

Lots of fun to combine these and other simple tap steps into smart dance routines.

Quickly tap your way to popularity. Our 32-page booklet gives diagrams and directions for all the basic steps, how to mix them in snappy routines. Buck and Rhythm Buck, Military, Waltz.

Send 10c in coin for your copy of "TAP DANCING SIMPLIFIED" to The Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Service, 635 Sixth Ave., New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, and the NAME of booklet.

Cockroach Pollutes Food

As He Travels in Homes

Unlike many insects, the cockroach doesn't confine his diet to one or two foods. He banquets on fine fabrics, grain, wool, leather, bread, and potatoes. Starch is the cockroach's favorite diet. This craving for paste leads the roach to gnaw into books and their bindings and to peel paper from the wall to get at the underside. However, the most serious black mark to be checked against this bug is that he carries disease by polluting food as he travels from place to place, asserts a writer in the Los Angeles Times.

There are several thousand species of cockroaches. The American roach, the largest species, may grow two inches long. The body color is light brown and the adults have reddish-brown wings.

Compared with many insects the cockroach lives to an old age. His life span may extend as much as five years. Ordinarily it takes him about a year to get his growth. He likes the warm and humid conditions of the home. As the cockroach is a great water drinker he often is seen in damp places. This trait of his has led to his being called wrongly a "water beetle."

Cockroaches go food hunting at night but spend the day hidden from sight.

MODES of the MOMENT

By ADELAIDE KERR

She has a heart of gold—a dozen, in fact—strung round her neck and wrist in costume jewel pieces designed to fill a corner in Santa's sack. The watch she wears is curved to fit the side of her wrist on the theory that she can see it more easily.

And Babe Sleeps On Dunkirk, N. Y., Dec. 19 (AP)—It takes more than an automobile theft to break up the slumber of 16-months old Barbara Abbey. Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Abbey of Westfield left Barbara in their car while they did some Christmas shopping. When they returned the car and baby were gone. The frantic parents notified police. About an hour later, a deputy sheriff arrested a youth as he stepped from the stolen car at a dance hall several miles away. Barbara was still sleeping in the back seat.

Cook Would Have Cheats & Swings at 1939 World's Fair

Woodstock, N. Y., Dec. 19, 1938. Editor, The Freeman,

Dear Sir:

I propose that Woodstock Cheats & Swings, or Ulster Square Dancers under management of Cheats & Swings, dance at the World's Fair and for the duration of the fair. That the dancers will function as entertainers and as promoters of square dancing in an eating (and drinking) place on the fair grounds.

I visualize a building approximately 60 by 100, air-cooled, amphitheatre style of architecture, with tables for a few hundred guests on ascending levels from the dance space, which will be in the pit. I would want dance space for two acts, one set of Cheats & Swings, or Ulster dancers, one set from the audience.

I would not consider taking the Cheats & Swings to such a place as entertainers only. We always want to get the audience in. That is, in my estimation, the only legitimate promotion. I would stipulate a service bar only.

The walls of this building could be decorated by project artists, subject-matter of murals could be Ulster material. The menu cards might carry Ulster publicity.

Ulster county might subsidize this venture to an appreciable degree. I am angling for a New York investor. If I get support outside of Ulster entirely then of course the venture will be all Cheats & Swings. If I get sufficient support from Ulster county I am willing to utilize square dancers other than Cheats & Swings members.

There would be salaries in it for Cheats & Swings Orchestra, Cheats & Swings caller, myself and dance partner. And there would be opportunity for a few score dancers to dance from one to three weeks each at the fair, also on salary. The entertainment pay-roll should run about $500 per week.

Cheats & Swings are now in position where in order to carry on in square dance revival they have got to capitalize their reputation and get in on the money. We need at least $600 expense money to fulfill our prospective engagements in New York city this year and I do believe we could raise $15 locally. We are asked to dance at the National Youth Administration School in New York, at the Friendly Community, at a monster festival to be staged by the Folk Festival Council. We have already passed up an opportunity to dance at Brooklyn museums—last month.

Sincerely yours,

DIYRUS COOK.

Hope for Truce Fades

Hendaye, France (At the Spanish Frontier), Dec. 19 (AP)—Hope for a Christmas truce in the civil war faded today as insurgent dispatches reached the border telling of continued military preparations for a drive to depend "only on the weather." The bitter cold was sweeping Europe continued to delay the offensive and to give the government time to strengthen its defenses.

Court Will Pass On Income Taxes

Washington, Dec. 19 (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to pass on litigation to test the right of a state to collect an income tax from employees of federal agencies.

Directly at issue was an attempt by New York to assess a tax against the $2,246 salary received in 1934 by James B. O'Keefe as attorney for the Federal Home Loan Corporation.

The New York Court of Appeals ruled that the attorney was performing a federal function and his salary could not be taxed by a state. The Supreme Court consented to review this decision.

The tribunal adjourned until Tuesday, January 3.

Tributes to the late Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo, who died last July, were paid by Chief Justice Hughes and Attorney General Cummings.

Miners to Hold Own Party 1,400 Feet Down

Ishpeming, Mich., Dec. 19 (AP)—Work will stop at the Morris iron mine for a half hour tomorrow morning while the men hold an unusual Christmas party 1,400 feet below ground.

This has been an annual event at the mine, owned by the Inland Steel Company, since 1920. Charles Miron, mine captain who fathered the Yule celebration, has been invited to attend. He now is at the Penn mine in Vulcan, Mich.

The unique Yule ritual actually resulted from a joke. Eighteen years ago a tree loaded with evergreens fell to the ground near the mine shaft. A prankster dropped it down the opening and it was tossed into the corner. Miron conceived the idea of decorating it and letting the miners have their own annual celebration.

So tomorrow, for the nineteenth time, the mine passages will echo the notes of "Silent Night, Holy Night."

President Gives Message to Scouts

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—President Roosevelt sounded the keynote of a week of pre-Christmas festivities today in a message to the Boy Scouts of America.

The message, made public by Chief Scout Executive James E. West, suggested that "all of us do a good deed for some other person, especially for some one who is less fortunate than ourselves."

The President will extend formal yuletide greetings to the nation Saturday in a ceremony at which he will light the national community Christmas tree in Washington.

Following her 13-year custom, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt will distribute gifts to 36 boys and girls under 12 years of age tomorrow at a Christmas party at the headquarters of the New York Women's Trade Union League.

A 70-foot tree in Rockefeller Plaza will be lighted tonight, and radio broadcasts will accompany lighting of other trees in Times Square, Stuyvesant Square, Union Square and Columbus Circle.

Lawyer Says He Drew Contract

al repercussions was the theory held by most investigators that Musica's empire of swindle and his reported traffic in munitions were safeguarded by political protection—bought with stolen millions.

Chief Clue

Federal authorities disclosed that their chief clue in the arms smuggling inquiry was a recent letter to George Musica, alias "George S. Dietrich," assistant treasurer of McKesson & Robbins, ordering 250,000 rifles and 250,000 rounds of ammunition.

Investigators said they had not yet established the true identity of the man who wrote the letter. George Musica, 47, scheduled to be brought here from New Haven, Conn., during the day, will be questioned with the other surviving brothers, Arthur, 44, alias "George Bernard," Canadian agent for the drug firm, and Robert, 34, alias Robert Dietrich, purchasing agent for the firm's Bridgeport, Conn., plant.

Each is held under $100,000 bail on charges of violating the federal securities act.

One of the brothers, investigators said, already had admitted "some people made us pay plenty" to keep the Musica past hidden.

Another witness in the inquiry, 60-year-old John M. Kantor, father of novelist Mackinlay Kantor, has been held without bail as a fugitive from justice. Federal agents said Kantor had told them Coster's firm offered to sell him old U. S. Army rifles for shipment to Spain.

More Than 150 Subpoenas

More than 150 subpoenas have been issued for Wall Street brokers, officials of the drug firm and other concerns and for tons of McKesson & Robbins Corporation records. Seven trucks will transport New Jersey records of the company here.

Federal grand jury subpoenas also were issued—but not served—for the 79-year-old mother of the Musicas, Mrs. Antonio Musica, known as Mrs. Girard, and her daughter Marie.

The family physician, Dr. Stephen P. Petrovits, disclosed that the daughter had taken the mother to a Miami, Fla., suburb, fearing that knowledge of her sons' arrest "would kill her." Dr. Petrovits said that Mrs. Girard, "gravely ill" with diabetes, heart trouble and liver enlargement, had not been informed of her oldest son's death.

The federal inquiry, a detailed investigation expected to take weeks, will be coordinated by Assistant U. S. Attorney General Brien McMahon of Washington.

In addition to the attorney general's office, other participating agencies are the U. S. district attorney's office, postoffice department, the treasury's alcohol bureau, federal bureau of investigation, narcotics bureau and federal tax bureau.

Independent Inquiries

Independent inquiries also were being made by the state attorney general's office and District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey.

Seeking evidence of the Musicas' possible political connections, investigators looked for a reason behind the mysterious disappearance of police and district attorney records here giving data on earlier criminal activities of Philip Musica.

Federal authorities planned also to question Harry E. MacKenzie, a behind-the-scenes power in Republican circles in Connecticut, and other Connecticut political figures.

MacKenzie has pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiracy to defraud the city of Waterbury of more than $1,000,000. The grand jury which indicted him accused him of receiving a $3,900-a-year salary for lobbying for McKesson & Robbins at the Connecticut general assembly.

Other reports federal investigators checked were that Philip Musica, who they said rose to

Defendant Wins Verdict Today in Damages Action

A verdict in favor of defendant Harry Smith of Bainbridge was returned this morning in Supreme Court in the action brought by George Allen of Napanoch and others against Mr. Smith.

The action was brought to recover damages arising out of an automobile accident near the County Line Tavern on January 10, 1937, when the cars of the two parties were in collision near Monticello.

John A. Bonomi appeared for plaintiff and Richard Hanna for defendant.

Another automobile case was taken up at the opening of court before Judge Foster and a jury. Curtis Perkins of Lloyd brings an action against Oscar E. Jones of Rome, N. Y., to recover damages to his truck which was damaged in a crash on May 17, 1936 about 2½ miles south of Highland. Mr. Jones and his wife also seek damages for personal injuries and damage to their car.

A. D. and A. W. Lent appear for plaintiff; Perkins, and Joseph A. Page and N. LeVan Haver appear for the defendants.

Mr. Perkins claims that on that Sunday afternoon he drove north from his farm about a half mile and was about to make a left turn across the three strip highway to enter the old road when the Jones car came south at a fast clip and struck him. His car was pushed around in the road and damaged.

On the other hand, Mr. and Mrs. Jones claim that they had left Rome early that morning for New York city with friends and as they approached the scene of the crash they were proceeding at a moderate speed. Near the point of the crash the new road runs easterly from the old route and there is a caution sign. Mr. Jones said he had slowed up because of the sign and then after passing the intersection started to pass on when the Perkins car cut out of line and crossed in his path. He claims the Perkins car struck his car.

The impact took place on the westerly side of the roadway near the gas stations and between which Mr. Perkins had intended to drive over a cut-off roadway to regain the old state route which lay to the west. With the Jones family were two friends who were also enroute to New York. Mr. and Mrs. Jones claim they were injured.

Mr. Perkins was the first witness called.

Growers' Names Will Be Listed On 'Apple' Roll

Albany, Dec. 19 (Special)—Two honor rolls for apple growers will be established by the Department of Agriculture and Markets in connection with meetings of the New York State Horticultural Society at Rochester and Kingston next month.

Western New York growers' names will appear on the Rochester roll of honor while eastern New York growers will be selected at the Kingston meeting.

Explaining the manner in which the western New York honor roll will be compiled, Commissioner Holton V. Noyes said state inspectors will select packages of apples at random from warehouses. Closed packages selected in that manner will be opened and graded on the eve of the opening of the horticultural show which will be in progress January 10 to 13.

If the package meets requirements of the grade marked on it by the packer, he wins a place on the honor roll. All the apples, whether in or out of grade, will be displayed at the show in Edgerton Park.

Marketing and distribution problems of the fruit industry will be featured at the Horticultural Society's meetings.

Maple Hill Man Injured When His Car Overturns

Nicholas Conrad, 64, of Maple Hill, was injured when his car turned over about five o'clock Sunday evening. Conrad, whose injuries are said to be not serious, was taken to the Kingston Hospital by George Bayer, the accident having happened near his gas station on the Rosendale Boulevard.

Hearing Postponed

Detroit, Dec. 19 (AP)—Federal Judge Edward J. Moynihan postponed today until Thursday a hearing on action of the securities and exchange commission against the Fidelity Investment Association. The company is charged with fraud in connection with the sale of contracts with a face value of $275,500,000 to approximately 60,000 investors throughout the United States.

Charge of Wood Cutting Dropped by Complainant

Checking up a complaint of Agnes Cernak of New Salem Saturday morning that men were cutting locust posts on her woodlot, Deputy Sheriff's Brown and Winne located Rocco Depo, Eugene Pala and Stephen Hertica of 18 Cedar street as the three men. Brought before Justice Benjamin H. Slight the men said that they had cut up some fallen locust trees on the Cernak lot and seeing no house nearby thought it was all right. The charge was not pressed and no arrests were made when the men agreed to take the wood they had cut and leave it at the Cernak place. Mrs. Cernak had intended to sell the wood in post lengths.

Recalls 'War Christmas'

Twenty years ago today while taking part in the battle in the Argonne Forest in France, William H. Baker, of 21 Abell street, encountered tear gas and was removed to the base hospital at St.

Aligner where he spent Christmas. Recalling his experience in the battle front in France, Mr. Baker said that on Christmas Day he was served turkey dinner at the hospital. "And it was a bang-up meal too," he observed with a smile.

Women law students as a group maintain higher scholastic averages than men, a check at Tulane University indicates.

Approximately 7,000 4-H club boys had small tracts of tobacco in cultivation in Kentucky in 1938.

Packing of Toys Starts Tomorrow

The Mayor's Christmas Cheer Committee plans to commence the work of packing the Christmas gifts for the 1,900 needy children in Kingston Tuesday morning at the municipal auditorium to have the packs ready for Santa Claus to deliver the last of the week.

The toys and games that have been renovated in Santa Claus' workshops at the Central Fire Station, Wiltwyck House and the Cornell engine house, are being removed today to the auditorium.

There will be a number of Santa Claus' helpers on hand Tuesday to assist in the job of packing the Christmas gifts.

The committee announced today that it still needed additional funds in cash that could be used in purchasing necessary articles to be packed in each bag, and all contributions should be sent to the committee at the city hall as quickly as possible.

The members of the committee, the firemen and police of the city and the boys of the NYA have been busy for several weeks and as a result of their work it is expected that every child in the city will receive a visit from Santa Claus. But for the work of these volunteers nearly 2,000 children would undoubtedly have been overlooked by Santa in his flying trip through Kingston on Christmas Eve.

Thabit Charge Now 2d Degree Assault

At the adjourned hearing before Justice L. D. Sahler, Stone Ridge, Saturday afternoon, in the case of The People against Philip Thabit of Kerhonkson, a member of the New York Board of Water Supply police force, the hearing was further adjourned to January 6 at 2 p. m., when the charge against Thabit was changed from assault in the third degree to assault in the second, a felony.

Thabit, who is alleged to have assaulted Ray Vivian and two companions, Jasper Oakley and Edward Beatty, on the Minne-waska Trail, late on the night of December 3, had been charged on complaint of Vivian with assault in the third degree. It having developed that Vivian, who was struck in the left eye and also in the jaw, has a more serious eye injury than was at first supposed, the original charge against Thabit was withdrawn and the charge of second degree assault substituted. Assemblyman J. Edward Conway appeared for the People and Philip Thabit's attorney represented Thabit at the hearing.

It is understood that in addition to the assault charge, Vivian and Oakley have also brought actions for personal injuries.

Issues New Rule

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—The state labor department has ruled that WPA employees whose working hours are concentrated in one half of the month are not entitled to unemployment insurance for the other half. The department held that the WPA monthly "security wage" of $60.50 to $98.75 was considered payment for a month's employment regardless of how the work was distributed over that period. State authorities also ruled that jobless persons would continue to receive benefit payments during National Guard or jury duty and that no creditor could garnish payments even if the recipient agreed to it.

Roder Is Sent To Penitentiary On Policy Count

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—Aaron Roder, 34 years old, a furrier, received an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary from Justice Nathan D. Perlman in Bronx special sessions today on a charge of violating the policy laws.

Roder, who gave his address as 280 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., was arrested on August 8 after a chase of several blocks during which several shots were fired at his automobile by police. A number of policy signs were found in the car.

Roder's wife, Mildred, created a scene in court when she heard her husband sentenced. She stood up and screamed, "No, no!" when the judge called for order, she was ejected.

At the time of Roder's arrest, police said he was the operator of one of the largest policy banks in the city.

This evening the civil service board is holding examinations for the position of investigator and messenger-chauffeur of the welfare department, and from the eligible list compiled as a result of the examination will name two investigators and a messenger-chauffeur.

Rhinecliff Man Is Found Dead

Rhinecliff, N. Y., Dec. 19 (AP)—Chester A. Rothwell, retired United States Army captain, was found dead early today in the garage at his home here. He was about 55 years old. Dr. Howard P. Carpenter, Dutchess county assistant medical examiner, gave a preliminary verdict of suicide by monoxide poisoning. The body, he said, was discovered by Mrs. Rothwell under the family automobile, a rug spread over the head.

Mrs. L. C. Dixon Is Injured As Car Skids and Overturns

Mrs. L. C. Dixon of Marlborough received a severe laceration of the scalp, with numerous bruises and contusions, including a wrenched knee, and is also suffering from shock and concussion as the result of an accident between Wurtsboro and Port Jervis Saturday night.

At the Kingston Hospital this noon her condition was reported to be good. She is under the care of Dr. P. A. Johnston and will probably be able to return to her home by the end of the week.

Mrs. Dixon was injured when the sedan, driven by her husband, skidded on the icy roadway and turned over, throwing her from the car. Mr. Dixon sustained a wrenched back, but was able to be around today.

now worn by Joe Louis. The NHA gave this accolade to the New Jersey battler yesterday when it made public its quarterly ratings. Next in line for a crack at the champion was placed Lou Nova, young Californian who trounced Tommy Farr in New York last week. Max Baer, former titleholder, ranked third.

Securities Show Net Gain for Week

Although stock prices moved lower Saturday, in transactions totaling 452,870 shares for the short session, all classes of securities showed a net gain for the week, running from 95 cents a share for the utilities to over $2 for the industrials. Saturday's close showed a loss for the day of 0.53 point, down to 150.36, for industrials in the Dow-Jones averages. Rails were off 0.16 point for the day and utilities declined 0.13 point, to 22.29.

Cotton futures showed a gain Saturday, while wheat was 1/2 of a cent lower, but for the week cotton, wheat and corn showed losses. Otherwise commodity markets the past week were comparatively steady. A feature of the week's business was the activity in the World Street cotton goods market, with sales reported at the rate of twice current production.

Business indications the past week were not unfavorable although there is seen the usual let-up for inventory purposes and as the end of the year draws nearer, so far it is not apparent that there is any actual let-up in the recovery trend that has maintained since mid-summer. On the contrary most forecasts are for further expansion in production and distribution. Steel output was down last week, but at that was twice that figure for a year ago and with one exception the best for the week in six years.

There was much interest in the past week in announcement that the Export-Import Bank, a government agency, had opened a $25,000,000 commercial credit account with China and was preparing to increase its capital with other similar transactions in view.

The program to do away with all privately owned electric utilities in the state of Nebraska was furthered when two local power boards authorized issuance of $25,000,000 in bonds for purchase of properties. The two power districts are the Tri-County Public Power District and the Loup River Public Power District, both PWA sponsored districts. In connection with the above, Senator Bridges of New Hampshire has introduced his proposition for a congressional investigation of the Nebraska situation and other matters involving the PWA.

Minneapolis-Moline Power Implement Co. had net of $727,032, or 12 cents a common share for year ended October 31, compared with net of $1,524,585 or 12 1/2 cents a share in preceding year.

Swift & Co. reported net loss of $4,939,978, for year ended October 29, vs. net income of $8,880,496, or $1.50 a capital share in previous year. Dollar sales for the year were about ten per cent lower than in the previous year.

A memorandum has been filed with the Treasury Department protesting the ruling that goods from annexed Sudeten territory exported after November 9 be classified as of German origin. It is claimed that such classification would make the goods practically worthless, since there are higher duties on German goods imported into the U. S. and in addition the goods would be affected by anti-Nazi boycotts.

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—Selected stocks trailed the aircraft on a brisk upswing in today's early market proceedings, but gains running to two points or more substantially reduced or cancelled near the final hour.

A number of new highs for the year were registered for aviation favorites. Steels held fairly well in the face of an estimated drop of 5.3 points in this week's mill operations. Rails and specialties were in demand while coppers, oils and utilities slumped over a narrow range.

Deals, fast in the forenoon, slowed later as profit taking cut down top marks. Transfers were at the rate of about 1,200,000 shares.

Bonds followed stocks at a more leisurely pace. European securities markets did better. Commodities were moderately mixed.

At new 1938 peaks were Douglas Aircraft, Bendix, United Aircraft, Eastern Airlines and Glenn Martin.

Among the best performers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Southern Pacific, Great Northern, Chrysler, Westinghouse, Montgomery Ward, Wright Aeronautics, Union Carbide, Johns-Manville and U. S. Rubber.

Aiding sentiment were reports automobile purchases, which jumped notably in the final 10 days of November, increased further during the first half of December.

Erie Line to Run New Streamliner

Erie, Pa., Dec. 19 (AP)—A new streamlined, projectile-like locomotive, capable of pulling 15 standard sleeping cars 125 miles an hour, was unveiled here today. The giant of the rails represented the completion of two years' work by General Electric Company engineers in collaboration with the Union Pacific Railroad.

Eighty General Electric officials, headed by Owen D. Young, chairman of the board, and Gerard Swope, president, were to swing aboard for brief rides on the test track.

The locomotive, carrying its own steam-turbine plant, packs the punch of 5,000 horsepower. It is tuned to do twice the work of a conventional locomotive for each pound of fuel and to make three times the mileage without stops for either fuel or water.

Unlike the conventional locomotive, the steam from the boiler does not escape through a smokestack after driving the turbine. It is condensed back into water and re-fed into the boiler.

The boiler steam generates electricity in much the same manner as in a public utility plant. This electricity is used to turn the powerful motors geared to the wheels.

Stone Ridge, Dec. 19.—Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Grange Hall, the children of the Stone Ridge School will present their annual Christmas play, entitled, "Mickey Mouse in Toyland."

The three scenes take place in Santa Claus' workshop, where the audience will see Santa's helpers dressed in brilliant red dresses trimmed with ermine not only working but also entertaining Santa. At midnight Mickey Mouse chews his way out of his box. At this point the fun begins for all. The public is invited to attend what promises to be a colorful and amusing play.

$400 Award Made Against Ziegler

An award of $400 by stipulation was made in No. 99, Marion Hughes Pierce against Fred E. Ziegler and another, an action brought in supreme court under a contract on note action.

At the opening of supreme court this morning the settlement of the action was announced by John M. Cashin for plaintiff and N. Jansen Fowler, attorney for the defendant. The case was on the day calendar.

Erie Line to Run New Streamliner

Erie, Pa., Dec. 19 (AP)—A new streamlined, projectile-like locomotive, capable of pulling 15 standard sleeping cars 125 miles an hour, was unveiled here today. The giant of the rails represented the completion of two years' work by General Electric Company engineers in collaboration with the Union Pacific Railroad.

Eighty General Electric officials, headed by Owen D. Young, chairman of the board, and Gerard Swope, president, were to swing aboard for brief rides on the test track.

The locomotive, carrying its own steam-turbine plant, packs the punch of 5,000 horsepower. It is tuned to do twice the work of a conventional locomotive for each pound of fuel and to make three times the mileage without stops for either fuel or water.

Unlike the conventional locomotive, the steam from the boiler does not escape through a smokestack after driving the turbine. It is condensed back into water and re-fed into the boiler.

The boiler steam generates electricity in much the same manner as in a public utility plant. This electricity is used to turn the powerful motors geared to the wheels.

A famous cook offers this suggestion for bread stuffing for turkey: Cut white bread into slices about half an inch thick. Butter each slice, discard the crusts and cut the slices into half-inch cubes. The bread is then ready for the seasoning. She thinks the butter favors the bread better when added this way.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Wrong Stars
 St. Louis—Sheik Abdul reads the stars—some of them. In a booth in a store he was distributing astrological charts entitling purchasers to have their minds read.

Among his customers was a woman he told needed more ambition to get a job. The "customer" — Policewoman Hazel Hagerly—promptly arrested him. Sadly the sheik admitted the stars had given him no warning.

No Hurry
 Brockton, Mass.—Charles A. Lapworth, 69, has placed the last nail in his own casket. The box is gold-trimmed and lined with blue silk, a work of many months.

But Lapworth is "just getting ready." He said he doesn't expect to use it until he is past 109.

Comedy of Errors

Omaha, Neb.—"Family disturbance," said the police radio. "Man beating his wife." So Officers Al Schneider and Victor Bellitz investigated and:

1. Schneider fell through an outside trapdoor while prowling about the locked and darkened house.

2. The householder telephoned police burglars were menacing his home.

3. Bellitz finally got in—to be greeted by a punch on the jaw.

4. Reinforcements—two more policemen—arrived and helped arrest the householder.

5. Schneider went to the hospital with possible ankle and shoulder fractures.

Meanest Thief

Chicago—The Rev. Harold L. Bowman rejoiced Saturday night in the beauty of the lighted Christmas tree set in front of the First Presbyterian Church.

Sunday morning he discovered there was only a hole where the tree had been.

Man About Manhattan

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—Al Tolson, plodding through the snow of an early December morning, bumped into Billy House, the over-sized comedian whose poundage hovers around the 300 mark.

"My, but you're putting on weight," greeted Tolson. "Doesn't it bother you?"

"In a way," admitted House, "but then it gives me an advantage over you thin fellows. I always know exactly where my cigar ashes are going to fall."

THE manager of an uptown real estate firm hit on a new plan to boost his property sales and everything was going nicely until he met up with one of those small lads of the Tom Sawyer variety.

As I got the story, the manager and a prospective buyer were strolling through a new residential section, looking at the lots, when the customer let out an ejaculation and picked something off the ground.

"Look," he cried, "a rabbit's foot!"

"That's wonderful," exclaimed the real estate salesman. "That's a good omen. Maybe it means that if you buy one of our lots you'll be in luck."

"Maybe you're right," agreed the buyer, fondling the token.

But just then a small boy of ten or thereabouts sauntered into view. He appeared to be looking for something.

"Lost anything, son?" the real estate man inquired.

"Nope, ain't lost a thing. Just looking for rabbit's feet. Already found four. A man scatters them over this place every week. Says it's a swell come-on for suckers."

IT WAS the party of the third part that interested Adele Ransom, the actress.

Having been offered a part in a new play, she readily accepted and then broached the subject of a contract.

"Well," said the producer, "I do not believe in contracts. My word is my bond. Your word is good with me. Doesn't that make everything okay?"

"Oh, sure," replied Adele. "It's sufficient as far as you're concerned and I'm concerned—but what'll we have to show the judge?"

The best show in town is one that goes on all the time—and it doesn't cost a cent. It's the skating pond in Rockefeller Center.

The average man can do more harm with his mouth than with a gun.

Sheeketski Gets Position

Worcester, Mass., Dec. 19 (AP)—Joe Sheeketski, "The Bouncing Pole" from Notre Dame, is the new head football coach at Holy Cross. Sheeketski, for six years backfield coach of the Crusaders, signed a three-year contract with Holy Cross last night. Salary terms were not disclosed. He succeeds his former chief, Dr. Eddie Anderson, who left Holy Cross to become head grid mentor at the University of Iowa.

Judge Faris Dies

St. Louis, Dec. 19 (AP)—United States Circuit Judge Charles B. Faris, who first ruled on a monetary policy of the Roosevelt administration, the right of Congress to abrogate the gold clause in private contracts, died at his home here yesterday. He was 74 years old.

Philly Hebrews on Top Again—
How Budge Learned Backhand

Len L. Laraway of Philmont would like to book basketball games with teams in Kingston. Managers, here's your chance.

Sergeant Perry leaves for his home in Philadelphia today for Christmas vacation. His and is healing nicely. James McCabe, acting staff sergeant at the West Point, was town yesterday arranging for athletic activities for post creation. He looked great. Mac formerly handled Bill when he was champion of the National Guard. Roger once a scribe for The Free-who is going places at Syracuse University is home for the holidays. Next year he'll manage the football team. Let's Tommy Maines is on it. Mable had a lot of nice things say about his brother Kingston.

There was a swell crowd out for the opening of the Central Recreation Allys, Saturday night. Kept Johnny Ferraro pumping the right. Ades, Tom Morrissey, Johnny Pete Keresman posed with a beautiful bouquet. The Philly Hebrews are back on the top of the American League by virtue of their victory over Troy in the bow the Jews took to Kingston in one of their games.

Wonder how the Reds ever stepped so that they couldn't take measure of Wilkes-Barre. They're standing at 7-5 in the league now. Chalk one up for the Rosendales. Five over the national cagers, 37-20. The Lamazons are topping the Silver Division of the Silver Palace.

"Thirty Days Hath September"

The origin of the verse, "Thirty days hath September, April, June and November," is lost in antiquity. It is at least as old as the Gregorian calendar and probably much older. The year 1572 marks its first appearance in English literature, when Richard Fraunce included it in his little "Treatise," an almanac of the period, under the title, "A Rule to Know How Many Days There are in the Year." Graff's version, containing no reference to leap year, ran as follows: "Thirty days hath November, April, June and September. February hath xxviii alone. And all the rest shall xxxi." Only two copies of the original work survive, one in the Henry IV Huntingdon library, the other in the British Museum.

Name Annie Means "Grace"

The name Annie is a diminutive of the Hebrew Ann, meaning "grace." However, according to a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, it is considered an independent name and few of the Annies were ever named Ann. Most famous of all the Annies was Annie Laurie, daughter of an English baronet, whose name was immortalized by William Douglas in the song of that name. She became the mother of Alexander Ferguson, hero of Burns' "The Whistle." Annie Oakley (1866-1926) came next, greatest woman rifle shot ever known. Her name was given slangily to free shots of any kind because she once "punched" with a rifle bullet pair of passes to the Wild West show in which she played.

Fire losses on farms in the United States in 1937 were estimated to amount to $95,000,000, an increase of five per cent from 1936.

LOOK OUT FOR THAT LEFT, TOMMY!

Tommy Farr, British heavyweight, cowers against the ropes and tries to avoid that left which Lou Nova is ready to rip into him. This bit of action came in the fourteenth round of the contest which ended by Nova, a young California heavyweight, taking the decision and placing himself in the forefront of the heavyweight fight picture. The bout, which took place in New York's Madison Square Garden, was witnessed by some 10,000 fans.

Sports Fans, Officials Attend Baer Back on Title Roadway

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—The heavyweight situation once more is in the large, playful paws of Maximilian Baer.

Max is the only heavyweight outside of Champion Joe Louis, capable of making a good match for Lou Nova. Nova became the division's man of destiny Friday night when he whipped Tommy Farr, but he is not ready to step into the same ring with the champion.

If Lou beats Baer, no easy task, he will have cleaned up the field with the exception of the barrel-built Tony Galento, and can move into a title bout with the best record of any challenger.

Should Baer win, Mike Jacobs' oratory and the silent but strong pull of a large wave of greenbacks will bring Baer and Louis together again. Nor is this too distant a possibility. Baer has beaten better men than Nova.

John Ferrara, proprietor was then introduced and was presented with a floral token from the Modjeska bowling team. Mr. Ferrara accepted with thanks and promised to give the bowlers the best conditions possible.

Alderman-at-Large John J. Schwenk brought the greetings of Mayor Heislman who was unable to attend. He congratulated the proprietors and spoke of the healthful influence of bowling in a community.

Peter J. Keresman, president of the Kingston Bowling Association, extended the congratulations of the bowlers of Kingston through the Kingston Bowling Association, mentioning Kingston's A. B. C. record and achievements, one of nine cities in the state, and one of 109 in the country to be 100 per cent sanctioned.

John Terrill, manager of Fisher Body, congratulated the new proprietors and said it was always a pleasure for Fisher Body teams to appear in Kingston.

Steve Hopkins, editor of Newburgh News, said that he knew Mr. Ferrara when the latter operated the Broadway Allys in Newburgh and was confident he would give the local bowling public excellent treatment.

Those who took part in throwing the first ball on the various alleys:

John J. Schwenk, alderman-at-large.

Peter Keresman, president of Kingston Bowling Association.

From Bowling League.

Robert L. Sisson, Y. M. C. A. Jack Martin, president of Silver Palace.

Thomas Rowland, Y. M. C. A. J. Frederick Jones, founder of Hudson Valley League.

Others present were Peter Greco, proprietor of the Ellen-ville Recreation; Cecil Rhodes, secretary of the Newburgh Bowling Association; Les Shurtler, secretary of Rondout Valley Bowling League.

Telegrams of felicitation were received from Dutchess County Recreation and various bowling alleys in the district.

Pirates Biggest Disappointment

New York, Dec. 19 (AP)—Chief sports disappointment of 1938, individually and collectively, were the Pittsburgh Pirates who kicked away the National League pennant in the last week of the season.

Fourteen of the 70 sports editors participating in the eighth annual Associated Press poll picked the Pirates' flop as the year's outstanding disappointment and five more made it No. 2 on their list, with points awarded on a 3-2-1 basis.

Health Insurance Plan Is Supported

Los Angeles, Dec. 19 (AP)—California's 7,000 organized physicians were pledged today to inaugurate a plan for statewide voluntary health insurance at a monthly fee of approximately $2.50.

Given overwhelming endorsement by the State Medical Association's House of Delegates, the program within two or three months will make medical and hospital care available to thousands of low-income Californians.

Machinery was set in motion to establish a non-profit corporation, financed by the association, to administer the service.

Physicians and surgeons who participate will be paid out of a pool of the monthly fees on the "unit" basis—with different treatments rated according to their complexity.

Patients will be permitted their own choice of doctors and hospitals.

It was expected persons with incomes exceeding $2,500 yearly and those classed as indigents would be excluded alike from the medical service.

Los Angeles, Dec. 19 (AP)—A Christmas tragedy brought death to Mrs. Helen Wellet, 26, and her son, Jimmy, 4.

Three of them were draping the Christmas tree yesterday—Jimmy, his mother and his father, James Wellet. A quarrel arose. Wellet left. When he came back he found his wife and son shot to death, a .22 caliber pistol nearby.

"We had a quarrel about spending money for Christmas," Wellet sobbed to Detective Lieut. A. E. Winter. He pointed to a note left by Mrs. Wellet.

It read "Jim I think this way is best."

Dr. W. A. Petzoldt, widely known missionary, has completed 35 years of work with the Crow Indians of southern Montana.
